

– FREE + PAID –
JOB TRAINING

APPLY NOW FOR FREE HOSPITALITY TRAINING: CLASSES START SOON!

The Greater Chicago Food Depository offers a FREE, PAID 4-week hospitality training program for unemployed and underemployed adults living in Cook County. Our trainings are background friendly and welcome to those without a high school diploma or GED.

Get help finding a job in hospitality and customer service industries!

Our hybrid-approach training provides remote, virtual and in-person training to prepare you for a new career in the in-demand hospitality industry.

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL GET

- Hospitality and customer service training
- Beverage and barista basics training
- Knife skills training
- Kitchen safety and sanitation training
- Specialized professional certifications to start your career, including the ServSafe Food Handler, ServSafe Allergen, and ManageFirst Customer Service Certificate
- Life skills and career counseling services
- Professional development and employment assistance
- Transportation assistance
- $15/hour paid training + completion bonus

Lectures are conducted in English with Spanish-language support and materials available. All participants must be vaccinated against COVID-19 to enroll.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

APPLY FOR FREE + PAID TRAINING TODAY!

Call 773-843-5414 or visit chicagosfoodbank.org/job-training